Library Hours

The library will be open at 10 am Monday through Friday. Grab your mask and come in and browse. Please remember your card—it's self-checkout only. Lost your card? We'll give you a new one, free of charge. Three computers are available at a time with time limits of 30 minutes.

Curbside service will remain in place as long as our patrons need it. Simply give us a call at 495-7157 and talk to a staff member or leave a message. Or email your request to fremontpubliclibrary@gmail.com. Holds can also be made through the online catalog—just search for the book you are interested in and use the 'place hold' button. Once we have your requested items pulled, we will call to arrange a pick up time. No need to enter the library—we will place your requests on the bench outside the door.

1000 Books Before Kindergarten

Reading together is a wonderful way for parents to prepare their children for Kindergarten. 1000 Books Before Kindergarten is a program designed to encourage family reading with a fun challenge—read 1000 books to their child before kindergarten.

Carys Robinson and Presley Lewis have each experienced 1000 books! Their names will be entered into the Book of Fame Scrapbook and they have received a special library gift.

Congratulations to Carys and Presley!
Keep reading!
